Re: Rev. Hamborsky

See Hamborsky
At 8:56 A.M. operative boarded train at Philadelphia and arrived in New Brunswick, N.J. at 10:50 A.M. and proceeded to Mr. Watson's office and made out reports.

Operative made several attempts to see Ladislaw Mathe of 73 French St., New Brunswick, but found his office closed.

Operative went to South River, N.J. and continued to the residence of Rev. Nagy at the foot of Thomas Street. Rev. Nagy's wife told operative that he was working in a factory and could be seen any time after 7 P.M.

Operative continued to Perth Amboy and to the home of Rev. Louis Manany, in Kirkland Place. Was informed at his home that he was in New Brunswick, N.J. for the day and would not be home until the evening.

Operative returned to New Brunswick, N.J.

Respectfully:
